

Private Jewellery parties

Why not have a fun get together with friends, family or colleagues and browse the CrystalsandCo collection in comfort. We can go to your home or any venue with a large range of our products, for a party of any size but a minimum 5 people. If you do want to arrange a party for under 5 people, please contact us at crystalsandco@gmail.com and we will try to accommodate you.

CrystalsandCo parties are perfect for groups having a debs or wedding coming up or just for a good girly night in! There is a 10% discount on all our products and the organizer gets 15% discount. We even give a complimentary bottle of wine or cupcakes to start the party. CrystalsandCo products sell themselves and it is totally up to you if you want to purchase an item.

At the party we will also have exclusive party sets that offer even more savings.

At the CrystalsandCo party we will accept custom orders on certain products and order them for you if they are not in stock. We do have a portable credit card machine so we can accept laser, credit card, cash and cheques (cheques must be accompanied by a credit card) We currently do parties within a 40 mile radius of Dublin, but we may be able to accommodate you if you are outside this location.

To book a jewellery party simply complete the party application form, post or email it to us, use our website "Contact Us" page, or contact us on 087 9559202 (ideally 2 weeks notice will be needed). Make sure you include all the information on the form below. Looking forward to hearing from you!
